

LONE CANARY
WINERY

2007 Late Harvest Sauvignon Blanc

This exquisite and delicious wine was grown at the Willard Family Vineyard near Prosser. Carefully selected clusters were allowed to achieve extreme ripeness to show the depth and breadth of flavors of this wonderful varietal.

“Golden straw color. Bright aromas of apricot soufflé and buttercream frosting follow through on a soft entry to a fruity medium body with baked apple notes and breezy, honeyed apple core and mineral accented fade.”

Lone Canary is a Washington state winery dedicated to the production of high-quality, elegant wines that express what is delicious and distinctive about our state's fruit.
